Fulu Miziki

Event - Fulu Miziki ↻

When	Sun, 14. February 2027, 20:30 h
Category	Live Music in Rotterdam

Description

Kinshasa collective Fulu Miziki comes to Grounds with a wild, Afrofuturist performance built around instruments made from discarded materials. Punk, electronic music and industrial soukous collide in a sound that is as inventive as the band’s visual identity.

The name Fulu Miziki roughly translates as ‘music from rubbish’, reflecting the group’s belief that discarded objects can be given a new purpose. The musicians build their own instruments from recycled materials and perform in striking homemade masks and costumes.

Behind the spectacle sits a wider message about creativity, sustainability and the relationship between people and nature. Fulu Miziki imagines a future in which art creates space for freedom, peace and new possibilities.

Description

Grounds is a vibrant platform where audiences can experience groundbreaking music from emerging and renowned international artists across diverse genres. The venue hosts weekly concerts featuring styles ranging from Turkish folk to Afro beats, Latin to Sahara blues, providing a rich tapestry of global sounds.

Beyond live performances, Grounds actively contributes to the cultural climate of Rotterdam West by offering a stage for local talents and organising community events. They are also developing a second stage, Lab Grounds, in the historic HBS building in the city centre's Oude Westen district, aiming to transform it into a significant creative hub for musicians and dancers.
