When	Wed, 7. October 2026, 20:15 h
Category	Live Music in Rotterdam

Description

Polish pianist Krystian Zimerman returns to de Doelen's Grote Zaal after more than a decade. His rare recitals are known for technical precision, musical depth and close attention to every detail of the performance.

Zimerman has spent decades among the most respected concert pianists of his generation. His finely controlled touch, sensitivity to tone and thoughtful interpretations allow familiar classical works to reveal fresh colours and emotional detail.

This Rotterdam recital offers a rare opportunity to hear a pianist celebrated for his complete dedication to the music and his ability to hold a concert hall with remarkable focus.
