Description

Dutch hyperpop artist Alice Olsthoorn comes to Rotown after appearances at Noorderslag, Down The Rabbit Hole, Wildeburg and Best Kept Secret.

Known from Amsterdam’s queer rave scene, Olsthoorn makes Dutch-language hyperpop that blends pop hooks with deconstructed club production and a deliberately confrontational edge. Her track In NL Mag Je Een Vrouw Slaan combines social criticism with a club-ready sound.

Listeners of Merol, SOPHIE, Shygirl and Elmer may recognise the mix of sharp electronic production, humour and high-energy pop. Alongside her music, Olsthoorn is also known as a YouTuber and online creator.
