Belgian-Italian singer Salvatore Adamo comes to the Nieuwe Luxor Theater with C’est ma vie, a new tour celebrating more than six decades of music.

With more than 100 million albums sold worldwide, Adamo is one of the defining voices of French-language chanson. His Rotterdam concert brings together well-known songs from across his career alongside newer material, performed with his regular live band.

The programme includes classics such as Sans toi ma mie, his breakthrough hit from 1963, Tombe la neige, Vous permettez, monsieur? and Inch’Allah. The tour also shows that Adamo is still writing and recording new music well into his career.
