Description

De Doelen launches Infinite Hiss, a new concert series devoted to artists working between improvisation, noise and acoustic music. Its opening programme brings together Michael Foster, Leila Bordreuil and Chris Corsano, three musicians closely associated with the American experimental and improvised-music scene. Bordreuil and Foster began improvising together when they were 18, later developing a long-running trio relationship with Corsano. Their performances move between abrasive noise, detailed listening and spontaneous interaction, with each musician pushing the physical possibilities of their instrument.
