| Category | Live Music in Rotterdam |

Description

Rotterdam eight-piece Mothersfonk brings a high-energy mix of funk and hip-hop to Grounds, built around deep grooves, tight breaks and plenty of room for instrumental fireworks.

Inspired by classic funk and soul while giving the style a contemporary twist, the band combines a powerful rhythm section with sharp arrangements and virtuosic solos. The result is music made for movement, with James Brown-style foundations meeting a distinctly modern Rotterdam sound.

Also on the bill is FLiNK, the project of Rotterdam trumpeter Arthur Flink, joined by funk veterans Ride & Fly. Known from groups including Monsieur Dubois and State Of Monc, Flink brings his nu-jazz background into a harder funk setting filled with tight grooves, improvisation and energetic interplay.

Description

Grounds is a vibrant platform where audiences can experience groundbreaking music from emerging and renowned international artists across diverse genres. The venue hosts weekly concerts featuring styles ranging from Turkish folk to Afro beats, Latin to Sahara blues, providing a rich tapestry of global sounds.

Beyond live performances, Grounds actively contributes to the cultural climate of Rotterdam West by offering a stage for local talents and organising community events. They are also developing a second stage, Lab Grounds, in the historic HBS building in the city centre's Oude Westen district, aiming to transform it into a significant creative hub for musicians and dancers.
