Category	Live Music in Rotterdam

Description

Zuco 103 returns to Grounds after seven years, bringing its distinctive ‘Brazilectro’ sound back to Rotterdam.

Since forming in 1999, the trio has built a style that blends Brazilian samba, bossa nova and jazz with experimental electronics, funk and danceable grooves. Their concerts are known for turning quickly into colourful, high-energy parties with plenty of rhythm and improvisation.

Following an anniversary year, Zuco 103 released its tenth studio album, Mais Além, in 2026. The record shows that the band still sounds fresh more than 25 years into its career, combining Brazilian influences with electronic production and a strong live feel.

The trio has previously performed at major festivals including Lowlands, Pinkpop, Rock Werchter and Glastonbury.
