Kraak & Smaak returns to Rotterdam with new album Velvet Seas and a full live show at Maassilo.

The Leiden group has spent more than twenty years mixing funk, disco, soul and electronic music into a sound built equally for concert stages and dance floors. After celebrating its twentieth anniversary with the compilation Twenty, Kraak & Smaak returned to the studio for seventh album Velvet Seas, featuring tracks including Nothing Is Forever, Heat and Travel Light.

At Maassilo, the core group expands into its live-band formation with Berenice van Leer and Ivar Vermeulen on vocals. Description

The Maassilo, located in Rotterdam's bustling Maashaven area, is one of the city's most distinctive and dynamic venues. Originally built in 1910 as a grain silo, the venue's industrial heritage is immediately apparent in its raw, concrete aesthetic. This historical site has been transformed into a vibrant cultural hub that plays host to a wide range of events, from concerts and club nights to corporate functions and private gatherings.
