Description

Belgian electro-industrial pioneers Suicide Commando celebrate their 40th anniversary with an exclusive performance at Baroeg in Rotterdam on Saturday 14 November 2026. Expect relentless electronic beats, dark atmospheres and an intense night of industrial music, with Dutch EBM duo BHPL providing support and an afterparty hosted by UNTERWASSER.

Founded in 1986 by Johan van Roy, Suicide Commando helped shape the aggrotech genre, combining aggressive electronic rhythms, distorted vocals and dark industrial soundscapes. Over four decades, the project has become one of the most recognisable names in the international electro-industrial scene, producing underground club classics such as Hellraiser, Dein Herz, Meine Gier and Love Breeds Suicide.

The band's music has long been a fixture on Baroeg's dancefloors, making the venue a fitting location for this anniversary performance. Fans can expect a powerful journey through Suicide Commando's extensive catalogue, packed with pounding beats and dark electronic energy.

Support from BHPL

Opening the evening are Dutch electronic body music duo BHPL, formed in 2020 by musicians Maurice and BJ. Drawing on their backgrounds in hardcore and metal, the pair create uncompromising electronic music built around heavy bass sequences, distorted vocals and mechanical rhythms. Their sound takes inspiration from artists including DAF, Swans and Sarin, while incorporating elements of techno and electro.

UNTERWASSER afterparty

The evening continues with an industrial afterparty organised by UNTERWASSER, the collective known for its dark electronic music events since 2015. DJs Fritz, Nachtraaf and Vidma will keep the dancefloor moving with selections from across the industrial and alternative electronic spectrum.

Description

Baroeg is a legendary subcultural pop venue in Rotterdam, known as the city’s home base for hard and alternative music. Since the early 1980s it has been the go-to spot for metal, punk, hardcore, rock, gothic, industrial, psychobilly and other underground styles. What started as an open youth centre grew into a full pop podium with a loyal community and its own annual festival, Baroeg Open Air.

The venue sits in the Lombardijen neighbourhood by the Spinozapark and has an intimate club vibe: a compact hall with a low stage, solid sound system and a bar where artists and visitors mingle. For many underground and alternative fans in Rotterdam, Baroeg is less a random venue and more a second living room.
