Description

Belgian metal and hardcore band Fleddy Melculy return to Baroeg in Rotterdam on Saturday 28 November 2026, celebrating ten years of heavy riffs, absurd humour and unapologetically loud music. Joining them are Dutch hardcore newcomers Inherited, promising an evening of powerful performances and plenty of opportunities to let loose.

Fleddy Melculy first attracted attention in 2016 with their breakthrough single T-Shirt van Metallica, a humorous take on music culture that quickly turned the Flemish band into a phenomenon. Led by vocalist Jeroen Camerlynck, the group have since built a devoted following with their combination of aggressive metal, hardcore punk and satirical Dutch-language lyrics.

Their fifth studio album, L'Avocat Du Diable, released on 31 October 2026, continues the band's tradition of poking fun at everyday frustrations and cultural absurdities. This time, tribute bands, Oasis, recreational cyclists and slackers are among their targets. According to the band, the new material is heavier than ever. Their debut album, Helgië, has also received a Redux reissue, giving fans another opportunity to revisit their early work.

Support from Inherited

Opening the evening are Inherited, a five-piece metal and hardcore band from Zeeland. After winning the Dutch Metal Battle and performing at several established festivals, the group have quickly earned a reputation for their energetic live shows.

Originally rooted in groove metal, Inherited have gradually shifted towards a more hardcore-driven sound without losing their rhythmic intensity. Their latest EP, All 4 One, showcases their development with heavy riffs, powerful grooves and an uncompromising approach to modern hardcore.

With Fleddy Melculy's unmistakable combination of metal and comedy alongside Inherited's hard-hitting sound, this concert offers an entertaining night for fans of heavy music who appreciate a healthy dose of humour.

Description

Baroeg is a legendary subcultural pop venue in Rotterdam, known as the city’s home base for hard and alternative music. Since the early 1980s it has been the go-to spot for metal, punk, hardcore, rock, gothic, industrial, psychobilly and other underground styles. What started as an open youth centre grew into a full pop podium with a loyal community and its own annual festival, Baroeg Open Air.

The venue sits in the Lombardijen neighbourhood by the Spinozapark and has an intimate club vibe: a compact hall with a low stage, solid sound system and a bar where artists and visitors mingle. For many underground and alternative fans in Rotterdam, Baroeg is less a random venue and more a second living room.
