Description

Sinterklaas is coming to de Doelen in Rotterdam on Wednesday 18 November 2026 for Sint Sing Along, a cheerful musical adventure filled with familiar songs, playful storytelling and festive surprises. Presented by the Rotterdam Philharmonic Orchestra and Jeugdtheater Hofplein, the family-friendly performance invites children aged three and above to sing, laugh and help solve a mysterious problem.

Everything seems to be going according to plan as Sinterklaas and his helpers prepare for the festive season. But when the children's carefully written wish lists arrive, something has gone terribly wrong.

Letters have been moved, words have disappeared and sentences no longer make sense. Could a mysterious word monster be responsible for all the confusion?

With help from the audience, Stip and Stippel set out to solve the mystery. Children are invited to sing along, guess missing words and discover how language and music can help put everything back in order.

Live music and festive activities

The performance features a ten-piece ensemble from the Rotterdam Philharmonic Orchestra, with conductor and arranger Ronald Ent and performers from Jeugdtheater Hofplein. Familiar Sinterklaas songs are given imaginative new arrangements, combining classical instruments with theatrical storytelling.

Before the performance, families can visit the foyer for additional Sinterklaas activities. Children can complete a special obstacle course to earn their helper's diploma and take part in a creative workshop to make their own wish lists.

After the show, visitors will also have an opportunity to meet Sinterklaas and take a photograph with him in the foyer.
