Description

The world of The Witcher comes to life at de Doelen in Rotterdam on Saturday 28 November 2026. Celebrating the tenth anniversary of the acclaimed video game The Witcher 3: Wild Hunt, this special concert combines live orchestral music, dramatic visuals and the unforgettable soundtrack of Geralt of Rivia's adventures.

Since its release in 2015, The Witcher 3: Wild Hunt has become one of the most celebrated role-playing games of its generation. Its vast fantasy world, memorable characters and rich storytelling are accompanied by an atmospheric soundtrack drawing inspiration from traditional folk music, orchestral composition and powerful vocal performances.

A soundtrack brought to life

The Witcher in Concert features a fourteen-member ensemble performing specially arranged music from the game. The musicians include members of Percival Schuttenbach, the Polish folk metal group whose contributions helped shape the original soundtrack.

The arrangements were developed under the supervision of Marcin Przybyłowicz, co-composer of The Witcher 3, ensuring a close connection to the game's musical identity.

The concert combines live performances with carefully designed visual effects, transporting audiences through the fantasy landscapes, battles and emotional moments that made the game so memorable.

From atmospheric folk-inspired passages to dramatic battle themes, the programme explores the musical world of The Witcher through a large-scale concert production.
