Description

Swedish power metal giants Sabaton return to Rotterdam Ahoy on Saturday 24 April 2027 for an evening of explosive riffs, epic storytelling and spectacular stage production. Known for turning historical battles and legendary figures into powerful metal anthems, Sabaton bring their distinctive sound to Ahoy Arena, with The Legendary Orchestra opening the evening.

Formed in Falun, Sweden, in 1999, Sabaton have become one of the most recognisable names in European power metal. Led by vocalist Joakim Brodén, the band combine heavy guitar riffs, soaring melodies and thunderous rhythms with lyrics inspired by military history.

Since releasing their debut album Primo Victoria in 2005, Sabaton have built an international following through albums including Carolus Rex, Heroes, The Last Stand, The Great War and The War to End All Wars.

Historical legends and powerful metal

The band's eleventh studio album, Legends, released in 2025, explores historical figures and events from different periods, expanding beyond the twentieth-century military history that inspired much of their earlier work.

In March 2026, Sabaton also released Yamato, accompanied by a music video developed in collaboration with the naval combat game World of Warships.

Sabaton have earned a reputation for elaborate concerts featuring dramatic visual effects, powerful lighting and theatrical elements inspired by the historical subjects of their music. Their live performances combine the energy of traditional heavy metal with the scale and spectacle of an arena production.

Special guests: The Legendary Orchestra

The evening begins with The Legendary Orchestra, whose symphonic arrangements bring an orchestral dimension to Sabaton's music. The ensemble previously accompanied the band during their 2025 European tour, creating a powerful combination of classical instrumentation and heavy metal.
