Description

Dutch-Belgian singer-songwriter Frans Kalf brings his poetic Dutch-language songs to Rotown in Rotterdam on Sunday 4 April 2027. Blending indie folk, chanson and alternative pop with heartfelt storytelling and subtle humour, Kalf promises an intimate evening of music inspired by everyday life, love and human relationships.

Born in the Netherlands and now based in Belgium, Frans Kalf has been attracting attention with his distinctive approach to Dutch-language songwriting. His music combines the melodic warmth of indie folk with the lyrical depth of traditional chanson, drawing comparisons to artists such as Spinvis, Lucky Fonz III, Roosbeef and Jacques Brel.

Following an impressive festival summer with performances at Down The Rabbit Hole, Into The Great Wide Open and Dranouter, Kalf is taking his music to smaller venues across the Netherlands. His songs have also received considerable airplay on Belgian radio, helping him build a growing audience on both sides of the border.

Intimate songs with a full band

Kalf's debut album, expected in spring 2027, explores personal emotions, relationships and the bittersweet moments of everyday life. Singles including Terwijl Je Voor Me Stond, Nou En and Jij En Ik showcase his ability to combine thoughtful lyrics with memorable melodies and understated arrangements.

For his Rotterdam performance, Kalf will be accompanied by his full four-piece band, bringing additional musical depth to songs that balance delicate moments with more expansive arrangements.

Fans of Nederlandstalige indie music, contemporary chanson and expressive singer-songwriters will find plenty to enjoy at this intimate concert.
