Category	Live Music in Rotterdam

Description

Dutch pop-rock band BLØF return to Rotterdam Ahoy on Saturday 20 November 2027 for a new edition of BLØF & Vrienden. The popular group from Zeeland will once again invite musical friends to share the stage, bringing fresh interpretations of familiar songs and special collaborations to one of Rotterdam's largest concert venues.

Since forming in the early 1990s, BLØF have become one of the Netherlands' most successful bands, building an extensive catalogue of songs that have become part of Dutch popular music. Hits such as Aan de kust, Liefs uit Londen, Omarm and Zoutelande have earned the band a loyal audience across generations, combining poetic Dutch-language lyrics with melodic pop and rock arrangements.

Musical friends and unexpected collaborations

The concept behind BLØF & Vrienden is simple: the band invites fellow musicians to reinterpret its songs together. Rather than performing a conventional greatest-hits concert, BLØF shares the spotlight with artists who bring their own musical personalities and interpretations to the stage.

Previous editions have featured collaborations with artists including Geike Arnaert, Gavin James, Danny Vera, Karsu and Nielson. The November 2026 edition includes Hannah Mae, Zoë Livay, S10, Blaudzun, Sabrina Starke and Derek Otte, demonstrating the variety of musical styles represented at these concerts.

The guest performers for the 2027 edition have not yet been announced. However, audiences can expect a programme combining BLØF's best-known songs with unexpected arrangements, musical surprises and performances created especially for the occasion.
