Description

Het Dikste Café Aan De Haven returns to Rotterdam Ahoy on Saturday 22 May 2027 for its third edition. Bringing the atmosphere of a traditional Dutch pub to the enormous Ahoy Arena, this popular music celebration promises an evening of Dutch-language hits, sing-along favourites and performances by some of the country's best-known party acts.

What happens when you transform one of Rotterdam's largest concert venues into an enormous Dutch pub? Het Dikste Café Aan De Haven brings together thousands of music lovers for a celebration of Nederlandstalige feestmuziek, with familiar songs, lively performances and plenty of opportunities to sing along.

Following two previous editions, the event returns in 2027 with another evening dedicated to Dutch popular music and the atmosphere of a traditional Dutch party. The organisers promise a varied line-up of performers, although the participating artists have not yet been announced.

A huge Dutch sing-along party

The event combines the excitement of an arena concert with the informal atmosphere of a Dutch café. Visitors can expect a programme built around recognisable melodies, energetic performances and songs that invite everyone to join in.

Several standing and seated ticket categories are available, including the Dikste Circle directly in front of the stage and a dedicated Sfeervak in the upper seating area, where visitors are encouraged to stand, dance and sing along.

For visitors looking for an additional experience, the organisers also offer VIP-deck packages with a separate entrance, refreshments and an exclusive afterparty.
