Description

Canadian singer-songwriter Jake Vaadeland returns to Rotown in Rotterdam on Thursday 25 February 2027, accompanied by The Sturgeon River Boys. Following a sold-out previous appearance, the group bring their lively combination of traditional country, 1950s rockabilly and bluegrass back to the stage, complete with vintage charm, infectious rhythms and plenty of humour.

Hailing from Cut Knife, Saskatchewan, Vaadeland is a self-taught multi-instrumentalist whose music draws inspiration from the golden age of country and early rock 'n' roll. With his distinctive voice, slicked-back hair and old-fashioned suits, he evokes the spirit of performers such as Johnny Cash, Hank Williams and Bill Monroe while bringing his own personality and songwriting to the music.

Despite his young age, Vaadeland has already built an impressive international career. In 2025, he won a JUNO Award for Traditional Roots Album of the Year with Retro Man... More and More, followed by a Canadian Country Music Association Award for One More Dollar to Go. His energetic performances with The Sturgeon River Boys have taken him across North America and Europe, including appearances at the Rotterdam Bluegrass Festival.

New music from This Is Jake Vaadeland

Released in May 2026, This Is Jake Vaadeland is a 17-track collection exploring the songs, stories and musical traditions that shaped his childhood in rural Saskatchewan. The record celebrates classic country and bluegrass through spirited performances, heartfelt storytelling and Vaadeland's unmistakable retro sound.

Backed by The Sturgeon River Boys, Vaadeland transforms these influences into a lively concert experience filled with tight harmonies, playful interactions and impressive musicianship. Fans of The Dead South, Billy Strings and traditional American roots music will find plenty to enjoy.
