Description

Indie troubadour returns to the theatre with a deeper, more personal show

Following a successful solo theatre debut in 2024, Blaudzun brings his introspective and emotionally rich performance back to the stage. In this intimate setting, the singer opens up about the stories behind his songs, blending music with personal reflections that are both moving and humorous.

The upcoming 2026 show promises a deeper dive into Blaudzun’s unique world, described by the artist as “a universe of intense music, stuck childhood memories, religious trauma — processed or not — and a passion for cycling and love.” With his distinctive voice and poetic lyrics, Blaudzun offers a concert experience that is as raw as it is uplifting.
