Event - Lo Poloko - Día de Muertos 🌵

Category	Live Music in Rotterdam

Description

Cumbia, Balkan brass, reggae & more in one explosive live set

Celebrate Día de Muertos the tropical way with Lo Poloko, a wild band of musical outlaws whose roots span Mexican, Chilean, Spanish, Italian, and Portuguese cultures — and whose home base is Rotterdam. These guys don't just play music — they launch sound grenades filled with cumbia, ska, Balkan brass, rock, reggae, dub and more. If dancing were a survival skill, this night would be your boot camp.

Lo Poloko's genre-defying energy has already turned many venues upside down, and this November they return to GROUNDS to do it all again. Expect bombastic Latin grooves, hyperactive percussion, and a full-on party atmosphere where every rhythm feels like a last call on the dance floor.
