Description

Two of gospel's most powerful voices come together for a special evening at Rotterdam's Ahoy Arena. CeCe Winans, one of the most celebrated gospel artists of her generation, returns to the Netherlands after being named Gospel Artist of the Year in her home country. Known for classics like Believe For It and Goodness of God, she brings both her own band and a full choir for a night of worship on a grand scale.

Sharing the stage is Charity Gayle, whose soaring voice and heartfelt songs such as I Speak Jesus and Because of Jesus have resonated with audiences around the world. Together, supported by The Choir Company, they promise an unforgettable gospel and worship concert, blending timeless faith with powerful contemporary arrangements.
