

Eloi Youssef (extra show)

Event - Eloi Youssef (extra show) ʘ

When	Sat, 9. May 2026, 20:00 h
Category	Live Music in Rotterdam

Description

Former Kensington singer Eloi Youssef returns to the stage with an intimate solo performance at Arminius in Rotterdam. Known for his warm, lived-in voice and strong songwriting, Youssef presents new material that sits between the personal and the powerful, putting his renewed artistic direction front and centre. Expect a close-up evening of stories and songs, with the room's seated setting adding to the sense of atmosphere and connection.

Musically, the set moves through alternative rock, classical influences and singer-songwriter territory, offering a natural fit for fans of Hozier, Kaleo and Kings of Leon.

Description

Arminius is a striking, restored monument building at Museumpark that doubles as a cultural stage and a distinctive live music setting. Inside, the former church hall gives gigs a big, warm sound, with acoustics that suit everything from intimate singer-songwriter shows to full-band performances. The main hall can be set up seated or standing, which is why you'll see it used for concert series and special shows in Rotterdam.
