Description

A fresh voice in contemporary Christian music heads to Rotterdam as Josiah Queen brings his folk-pop worship sound to RTM Stage. Expect acoustic guitars and piano at the core, backed by a dynamic live band and big, sing-along choruses. The show is framed as a journey that moves from small and vulnerable moments to full-room singing, with songs touching on grace, coming home, and perseverance, plus short moments of reflection and scripture reading woven into the night.

Support comes from String & Hearts, an indie rock act that broke through with the viral track “Flowers Dressed in Blue”.
