Category	Live Music in Rotterdam

Description

Part band, part travelling music tribe, La Forastería arrive at Grounds in Rotterdam with a live set built around movement and cross-cultural drift. Led by multi-instrumentalist Tuto Petruzzi alongside singer-songwriter Toni Volpen, the group blend Afro and Latin American roots with modern, electronic textures, weaving together guitar, charango, synths and percussion into a sound that sits comfortably in the psychedelic, world music and folktronic worlds.

Their latest album, Épicas Sagradas (2025), is described as a joyful, celebratory release, inviting listeners into a spirited space where ancestral wisdom meets contemporary soul. Expect shifting tempos, high-energy grooves, and a performance designed to land as much in the body as in the head: a night to smile, dance, and feel a little lighter on the way out.
