

Naaz

Event - Naaz 🐾

When	Fri, 15. May 2026, 19:00 h
Category	Live Music in Rotterdam

Description

Naaz celebrates the release of her new album with a special show at Arminius in Rotterdam. Her music blends alternative pop, R&B and indie pop, shaped by a layered, emotional sound and lyrics that dig into identity, freedom and self-determination. The listing also points to her Kurdish roots as an important part of that voice, alongside themes such as self-acceptance and mental health.

Naaz is known for songs that can feel sensitive and poetic one moment, then quietly powerful or even rock-leaning the next. She first broke through with the EP Bits of Naaz and built a reputation for honest, personal writing that does not hide behind vague pop gloss. This release show should suit that well, with Arminiuskerk adding a little extra atmosphere to the occasion.

Description

Arminius is a striking, restored monument building at Museumpark that doubles as a cultural stage and a distinctive live music setting. Inside, the former church hall gives gigs a big, warm sound, with acoustics that suit everything from intimate singer-songwriter shows to full-band performances. The main hall can be set up seated or standing, which is why you'll see it used for concert series and special shows in Rotterdam.
