Description

American band Pert Near Sandstone brings its modern take on bluegrass to Rotown in Rotterdam as part of a collaboration with Rotterdam Bluegrass Festival. Rooted in tradition but open to new turns, the Minneapolis group blends bluegrass with indie folk and blues, giving the style a fresher edge without losing sight of where it came from.

The band has built a strong reputation for reworking bluegrass in a way that feels current and lived-in, with songs that reflect contemporary experiences while still honouring the genre's deep history. That balance between old and new has helped Pert Near Sandstone stand out in the American roots scene, where they are also closely tied to their local folk and bluegrass community in Minneapolis. Their Rotterdam show promises an evening of spirited musicianship, earthy melodies and a sound that feels both familiar and newly sharpened.
