Description

Brighton six-piece Opus Kink heads to Rotown in Rotterdam with a live show that promises chaos, theatre and a sharp sense of mischief. Blending post-punk with jazz-punk and art punk, the band has built a reputation for performances filled with brass, dark humour and a slightly absurd streak. It is music that feels loose and volatile, but never careless.

That mix of swagger and unpredictability has made Opus Kink one of the more striking names on the British alternative circuit. Their songs come with plenty of movement and tension, while the live setting seems to push everything further, into something bigger, stranger and more physical. For listeners drawn to acts such as Warmduscher, Maruja, The Birthday Party and Fat Dog, this Rotterdam date should offer a night with plenty of bite.
