Category	Live Music in Rotterdam

Description

Dutch singer Ntjam Rosie returns to Grounds in Rotterdam with a live show built around her ninth, self-titled album. Long recognised as one of the more distinctive voices on the Dutch soul, pop and jazz scene, she draws on both African roots and European influences, shaping songs that feel personal, open and emotionally direct.

The new album is described as a return to themes that matter most to her: identity, motherhood, faith and artistic freedom. Early singles such as In Your Arms and Better point to a record with range, moving between intimate, reflective moments and grooves that are warmer and more danceable. With her combination of presence, charm and musical flexibility, this concert at Grounds looks set to offer a night that is soulful at heart but never static.
