Category	Live Music in Rotterdam

Description

Peter Pan Speedrock returns to Baroeg in Rotterdam for a line-up that looks built to hit hard from the first minute. Joined by Disturbance and Cenobites, the Dutch trio brings its trademark blend of speedrock, punk, metal and psychobilly back to a venue where the band has clearly left its mark before.

For anyone who caught their earlier Baroeg shows, this is presented as the return of a band that once seemed to play everywhere and turned that constant movement into a reputation. Peter Pan Speedrock became a defining name around the turn of the millennium by dragging rock and roll back to basics, then roughing it up with extra weight and speed. That approach gave the band a broad and loyal crowd, and helped push a whole wave of related acts in the Benelux. Even now, the appeal seems unchanged: loud riffs, no-nonsense energy and the kind of live reputation that still carries real force.

With Disturbance and psychobilly act Cenobites on the bill, the night promises a broad but tightly connected slice of underground heaviness.

Description

Baroeg is a legendary subcultural pop venue in Rotterdam, known as the city's home base for hard and alternative music. Since the early 1980s it has been the go-to spot for metal, punk, hardcore, rock, gothic, industrial, psychobilly and other underground styles. What started as an open youth centre grew into a full pop podium with a loyal community and its own annual festival, Baroeg Open Air.

The venue sits in the Lombardijen neighbourhood by the Spinozapark and has an intimate club vibe: a compact hall with a low stage, solid sound system and a bar where artists and visitors mingle. For many underground and alternative fans in Rotterdam, Baroeg is less a random venue and more a second living room.
