Event - Bob Wayne + Tio Gringo + Renegade Bandits ↗

When	Sun, 31. May 2026, 15:00 h
Category	Live Music in Rotterdam

Description

Bob Wayne rolls into Baroeg in Rotterdam with a Sunday bill that leans hard into outlaw country, rough-edged Americana and a crowd that is rarely easy to pin down. Alongside Tio Gringo and Renegade Bandits, the American songwriter brings the kind of show where punks, rockers, headbangers and country diehards all somehow end up in the same room.

That crossover appeal says a lot about Bob Wayne's music. His songs move between hillbilly swagger, bluegrass drive, honky-tonk grit and darker americana, always delivered with a strong sense of character. The result is less polished country revivalism and more road-worn storytelling with a sharp live edge. He is also known for surrounding himself with capable musicians, which helps keep the shows lively and gives even the most weathered outlaw material an extra kick.

With Dutch acts Tio Gringo and Renegade Bandits completing the line-up, Baroeg gets a full afternoon of outlaw country in all its scruffy, hard-drinking and crowd-pleasing forms.

Description

Baroeg is a legendary subcultural pop venue in Rotterdam, known as the city's home base for hard and alternative music. Since the early 1980s it has been the go-to spot for metal, punk, hardcore, rock, gothic, industrial, psychobilly and other underground styles. What started as an open youth centre grew into a full pop podium with a loyal community and its own annual festival, Baroeg Open Air.

The venue sits in the Lombardijen neighbourhood by the Spinozapark and has an intimate club vibe: a compact hall with a low stage, solid sound system and a bar where artists and visitors mingle. For many underground and alternative fans in Rotterdam, Baroeg is less a random venue and more a second living room.
