When	Sun, 22. November 2026, 20:30 h
Category	Live Music in Rotterdam

Description

Yuraa bring their dreamy electronic sound to Roodkapje West, adding a soft but pulsing edge to Rotterdam’s late-November concert calendar. Born in Barcelona and now based in London, the duo has been gaining ground in the European electronic scene with music that moves between house, breakbeat and dreampop.

The duo consists of Victor Ayuso Barroso and Maria Rojas Gomez, who met in London while studying music. Their sound can feel melancholic and euphoric at the same time, with a hazy glow that should appeal to fans of Caribou, Night Tapes and The XX. They come to Rotterdam with their second EP Goodbye My Love. For a first listen, try Run Together.
