Description

Brazilian singer, songwriter and guitarist Joyce Moreno returns to LantarenVenster in Rotterdam on Wednesday 18 November 2026. One of the most influential voices in Brazilian popular music, she brings her distinctive combination of bossa nova, samba and jazz to the stage, performing songs from her latest album, Never Too Soon, alongside beloved classics.

Born in Rio de Janeiro in 1948, Joyce Moreno began her musical career in the late 1960s and has since composed hundreds of songs and released more than 30 albums. Her music combines traditional Brazilian rhythms with sophisticated jazz harmonies, expressive guitar playing and deeply personal lyrics.

Throughout her career, Moreno has worked with leading figures in Brazilian music, including Vinícius de Moraes, while developing an independent artistic identity. Her compositions have also found new audiences through the international jazz and electronic music scenes, with songs such as Feminina and Água e Luz becoming enduring favourites.

New music from Never Too Soon

Released through Far Out Recordings on 30 October 2026, Never Too Soon brings together Moreno's lyrical sophistication, warm vocals and adventurous musical arrangements. The album explores familiar Brazilian musical traditions while incorporating contemporary jazz influences and new creative ideas.

For her Rotterdam concert, Moreno is joined by an accomplished group of musicians, including drummer Tutty Moreno, bassist Rodolfo Stroeter, pianist Helio Alves and percussionist Tom Andrade. Together, they bring the rhythmic richness and melodic beauty of Brazilian music to the intimate surroundings of LantarenVenster.
