| Category | Live Music in Rotterdam |

Description

Genesis Owusu brings his genre-bending live show to Rotown, and ticket sales are already moving fast. The Australian-Ghanaian rapper and producer refuses to sit neatly in one lane, mixing post-punk, hip-hop, funk, indie rock, neo-soul and electro into something sharp, restless and built for the stage.

Expect an energetic night of cutting lyrics, danceable basslines and tracks with enough bite to wake up the room properly. His live sound moves between chaos and groove, with the kind of momentum that should appeal to fans of The Streets, Deki Alem, Death Grips and Bloc Party.

His third album REDSTAR WU & THE WORLDWIDE SCOURGE came out earlier this year, adding another chapter to an artist who seems to thrive on surprise. For a first listen, try Stampede.
