Category	Live Music in Rotterdam

Description

Guus Meeuwis comes to Rotterdam Ahoy with his band for four arena concerts in April 2027. It marks the first time he brings a fully own show to the venue, adding Rotterdam to a career already packed with hit records and a record number of stadium concerts.

Meeuwis' story famously began in 1994, when he unexpectedly reached number one with a song he had originally planned to keep for himself. More than three decades later, he has become one of the biggest names in Dutch pop, with songs that have become part of the country's collective sing-along memory.

At Ahoy Arena, audiences can expect a full band show built around his best-known songs, warm stage presence and the kind of large-scale Dutch pop concert that tends to turn into one big chorus.
