

Min Taka

Event - Min Taka

When	Fri, 25. September 2026, 21:00 h
Category	Live Music in Rotterdam

Description

Min Taka brings her indie, synth-pop and hyperpop sound to Grounds for a Rotterdam show that feels both intimate and ready to burst. With songs in Turkish and English, she moves between softness, electronic energy and pop ambition, while weaving Turkish influences into a sound that is very much her own.

Her stage name refers to the myth of a lost paradise, but Min Taka is quickly becoming a name to know in the Dutch pop scene. Inspired by artists such as Mitski, Caroline Polachek, Cocteau Twins and Charli XCX, she released the EP I Think We Should Just Move In Together in July 2025. The EP passed one million streams in a single week, while the title track Boston won Hit of the Year at the Rotterdam Music Awards. She also received an Edison Award nomination.

Since 2020, Min Taka has appeared at venues and festivals including Down The Rabbit Hole, ESNS, The Great Escape and Motel Mozaïque. Now she returns to her second home, Rotterdam, before setting her sights on a wider European audience. Dramatic? A little. Deserved? Also yes.

Description

Grounds is a vibrant platform where audiences can experience groundbreaking music from emerging and renowned international artists across diverse genres. The venue hosts weekly concerts featuring styles ranging from Turkish folk to Afro beats, Latin to Sahara blues, providing a rich tapestry of global sounds.

Beyond live performances, Grounds actively contributes to the cultural climate of Rotterdam West by offering a stage for local talents and organising community events. They are also developing a second stage, Lab Grounds, in the historic HBS building in the city centre's Oude Westen district, aiming to transform it into a significant creative hub for musicians and dancers.
