Momoko Gill

Event - Momoko Gill ↻

When	Fri, 20. November 2026, 20:30 h
Category	Live Music in Rotterdam

Description

Momoko Gill comes to BIRD with a live show that moves far beyond the idea of a standard concert. The London-based artist brings together jazz, electronica, spoken word, improvisation and forward-thinking soul, creating performances that feel raw, hypnotic and emotionally charged.

Gill moves between South London’s underground jazz scene and the electronic worlds of artists such as Matthew Herbert, Tirzah, Coby Sey and Alabaster DePlume. As a drummer, producer, composer and vocalist, she builds music that deliberately rubs against genre borders, finding its spark in the friction.

With her project Herbert & Momoko, she has previously appeared at festivals and venues including Dekmantel, Rewire, Sónar and Bimhuis in Amsterdam. Now Rotterdam gets the chance to experience her own work up close in the intimate setting of BIRD.

Fans of Tirzah, Yussef Dayes, Little Simz, SAULT, Nala Sinephro and Alabaster DePlume should keep this one firmly on the radar. Expect no safe setlist, no routine, but an artist working fully in the moment.

Description

BIRD is a vibrant venue in Rotterdam's Hofbogen district, seamlessly blending a restaurant, club, and stage under one roof. Established in 2011, it has become a cultural hub, deeply rooted in jazz while embracing genres like soul, funk, hip-hop, and electronic music.

The name 'BIRD' pays homage to the legendary jazz saxophonist Charlie 'Bird' Parker, reflecting its commitment to jazz and related musical styles. The venue offers a diverse programme featuring both local emerging talent and international artists, making it a go-to spot for cultural enthusiasts.
